Provost Marshal Captures Italo General In Libya

MELBOURNE, Jan. 24.—(AAP).—Officials revealed Thursday that Capt. Godfrey Hawker of Melbourne, now deputy provost-marshal with the Australian Imperial force in Libya, captured the Italian general who had fled from Bardia.

Hawker is son of an Australian brigadier-general who has two sons in the ranks of the A.I.F. in Libya.

FEBRUARY has been set aside as WAR SAVINGS PLEDGE MONTH, when a national drive will be made, through employers, banks, post offices, canvassers, teachers, and other agencies, to obtain definite pledges of regular weekly savings from the entire population of Canada.

LONDON, Jan. 24 — (CP) — South African squadron destroys three Italian bombers in a daylight raid on an airfield in Abyssinia, the British Broadcasting Corporation reported Thursday night, quoting a Reuter's News Agency dispatch.

The Passing Show

By J. S. Cowper

A news despatch from New York which appeared a couple of weeks ago in The Bulletin, announced that a certain Lazarus Lazaro had admitted conveying some money from Germany for the Nazis. It didn't sell the most significant part of the story. The money, it now appears, was money exacted from his brother-Jews. It was stated in court that "millions of dollars" had thus been placed to the credit in foreign banks for all the Nazi chiefs. Hitler's name alone did not appear.

But his passport fraud—the only offense for which he could be tried—Lazarus was fined $2,500 and given two years in prison. Diamond and

The story, uncovered by the State Department and disclosed at the sentencing of Mr. Lazarus, revealed that by means of forged passports, this lineal descendant of Judas "Datus" Scennius, was traveling by comparison with the totalitarian racists. In Italy there are murderers that the gallant sons of Mussolini who went into ecstasies over the joys of bombing helpless Ethiopians, are staying at home and amazing fortunes making airplanes and films for papa's government.

Moronic Morality

—Want to see the much-touted film

How the Story Broke

Suspicion had been directed toward the man, who under the assumed name of Lee Lane, made many trips between Germany and the United States. The first clue about him was communicated to the American authorities by an unnamed "foreign agent." Upon being arrested for being in possession of a fraudulent passport, it was discovered that the man was a Rumanian Jew whose real name is Isidore Lazarus. Between the years 1908 and 1918 he spent most of his time in prisons in Colorado and Illinois, in confinement for his political and social activities.

Well-dressed and assured, Lazarus seemingly volunteered information about his financial services for the Nazi leaders, to a high official of the State Department. He was a man of considerable stature with a light tinge for his rounding on his chin, for he appeared in

"According to his own admission to me, he (Lazarus) not only made these arrangements between oppressed persons and high ranking members of the German government — for which he received a commission — but he also acted as the intermediary through which these high ranking members of the German government transferred the money to the hands of the victims. The Jewish standards of virtue couldn't be content to let the erring wife live on to a life of refined torture. She had sinned so she had to die. So the story is weakened and perverted. To please the morose, the Eurasian woman — after pocketing the $10,000 — sticks a knife into the bosom of the wife. Thus is virtue vindicated in the Hall of Justice."

Something New

Good hearty grumbling can get things put right; it can break down apathy and rend out-dated conventions.

Now the Sunday Dispatch policy has received a signal endorsement. It comes from Captain Harold Balfour, Under-Secretary of State for Air.

We must become a nation with but one thought—a passionate fighting hatred of the creatures who still hope to impose on us a regime of the whip, the cattle truck, and the gallows.

With The Pin Busters

Herold Pollard's third at 256 was the top single in C10 Pin on Thursday night, but Jim Hawthorne had high triple with 684. Hawthorne was three straight. Frank New led Woodward's Mixed Five taking the best one with 260 and his 422 was top three. M. Gordon of Stettler won the Thursday Ladies' high single with 271 and her other two games of 198 and 200 gave her a total of 669 for best triple. New Methods, Galters and Sewell won the first J. Judge again topped the list for high single and triple in Eastern Mixed and in divisional play the highest scores in any league for the night. The Spittles won had 205, 278 and 224 for 606. Hopkins and Bismarcks were three. Thursday Mixed, Jones of the Capitals rolled 233, 278 and 222 for a total of 733 to take both one and three game honors. C.N.B. took three straight and Capitals had 2700 the highest net total for the night. M. Rose had best single and double across in the Stettler League rolling 112 and 200. Traders, Marys and Bowiters were both zones.

Red Deer Plans District Hockey

Exclusive to Edmonton Bulletin
RED DEER, Jan. 24.—The Red Deer Board of Trade has decided to hold their second annual District Hockey Tournament on Saturday, February 15.
Paul Redman, acting board secretary, is in charge of arrangements and at a meeting held with representatives of district teams plans were made for the big event.
Eight teams will take part and the Board of Trade trophy and cash prizes will be at stake. The handsome trophy, which was won by the Palm Bay team last winter, has been returned and is now on exhibit.
Further arrangements for the trophy will be made at a meeting here on February 1. All the teams must put a list of their players by that date.

Rodeo Meeting

SALINAS, Calif., Jan. 24.—(AP)—The western rodeo, where the Rodeo Association of America met in 1939, opened negotiations from points in this country and Canada Tuesday for the opening of the three-day convention.
Thought awards to leading cowboys of the United States and Canada will be made at the annual banquet. The National Rodeo Association prize will go to Fritz Trautman, Salinas, riding spring.

Grey Cup Presented To Rough Riders Of Ottawa

OTTAWA, Jan. 24.—(CP)—The Grey cup, emblematic of the Canadian football championship and the Dixon trophy, a symbol of the Interprovincial Rugby Football Union title, were presented to Captain Andy Tommy of Ottawa Rugby Riders at a banquet honoring the club Thursday night.

Rough Riders were recognized as champions by the Canadian Rugby Union after a playoff series with Toronto Balmy Beach won the Grey Cup. There was no east-west playoff.

Frank Shugart, president of the International Baseball League and an old-time Canadian football star, offered a recipe for improving the Canadian game in a speech following the dinner.

"Eliminate the kick-in-the-dead-line point, use a moderate amount of interference, and you have a better game than American football," he said.

"The defending team has no chance against a kick that gets over the deadline and then gets back on without a chance to do anything," he said.

F. B. Hoot, Ottawa Journal executive, said sport should be carried on in the spirit of the game.

320 Golfers Start Play In Bing Crosby's Tourney

RANCHO SANTA FE, Calif., Jan. 24.—(AP)—The only tournament in the world where the professional golfer not only is exempt from paying an entry fee but also is seated and dined on the house gets under way today at the Rancho Santa Fe Country Club. It is the annual tournament staged by singer Bing Crosby.

The record field of 320—many appear to be in the region—will compete in the 36-hole meet for prize and purse money of $50,000, all donated by the film-maker sportsman. All proceeds, including prize administration, are to be turned over to charities in Los Angeles and San Diego.

$4,000 LOSS FOR FIRE IN CITY BLOCK

Firemen Fight Two-Hour Blaze In Maclean Building

Damage that an early estimate placed at between $2,500 and $4,000 was done by fire of an unknown origin that burned in the southeast portion of the Maclean Block at Jasper Avenue and 10th street at 8:45 p.m. Thursday.

The fire started near a desk in the east office of the west end branch of the Imperial Bank, that occupies the eastern portion of the downtown portion of the building at 1002½ Jasper Avenue.

Damage to office fixtures, such as desks and chairs was fairly extensive, but no currency or records were lost, all having been safely stored in the vault that housed the fire.

RISK LOSS
If W. H. Harrison, manager of the west end branch of the Imperial Bank, stated Friday morning and a heavy estimate placed the bank's loss at about $1,500.

There was some damage by smoke and water to the premises and the building was closed for a few days. The loss was covered by the bank's insurance.

RITTER COLD
Firemen battled the blaze in 20 hours. A fire northward went added to the discomfort of the firefighters from No. 1 Jasper Avenue. Two lines of hose were played on the fire.

High tribute to the skill of the firefighters was paid by Mayor Harrison of the bank Friday morning. The firemen certainly did a good job.

What do you think of ear-muffs for cold weather?

COMMISSIONER A. L. SWEENEY DIES FRIDAY

Civil Service Official Here Passes Following Illness

Veteran of the World War of 1914-18 and Alberta Civil Service Commissioner since Oct. 1, 1935, A. L. Sweeney died in a city hospital last before noon on Friday. He would have been 59 years old on August 1 next.

For some time Mr. Sweeney had been in ill health. His last appearance in his office was on Monday, January 13, on which day he was overcome with a heart seizure. He became a patient in a city hospital. Failing to rally to treatment, he succumbed Friday.

Mr. Sweeney was born August 1, 1877, at Moose Hamilton, Ontario. After attending school in his boyhood, he came to this country where he lived some time years ago. He was a member of the Civil Service Commission and from 1908 until 1912 served with this company in Western Canada.

Tram Service
THOMAS FERRIER, street car driver, was killed by a street car on Friday that every available street car, trolley and motor bus had been pressed into service to meet the demand.

MORE TRAMS IN SERVICE DURING COLD WEATHER

Every available piece of rolling stock is being used by the city to keep the streets clear of traffic during the cold weather of the past two days, it was announced Friday.

Mr. Ferrer stated Friday that there had been serious traffic trouble, but some delay had occurred through the exceptionally heavy traffic the system had been called upon to handle.

High tribute to the skill of the firefighters was paid by Mayor Harrison of the bank Friday morning. The firemen certainly did a good job.

GOVT. HOUSE MAY BE USED AS AGED HOME

Consideration is being given by the provincial government to use of government house as an old men's home, it was learned in reliable circles. The house was closed in 1928 following a motion by the legislature sitting in committee that it be demolished.

There are about 1,000 aged men housed in various provincial institutions. It is pointed out that if the house were used as a home for the aged, it would be a considerable saving brought about.

North Mining Properties Are Paying Rich Rewards As Result Of Development

Millions of dollars and 15 years of preliminary work are at last reaping a reward in the form of profit for the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company properties at Yellowknife and other mining fields in the north. W. J. Jewitt, district superintendent for that company, said in an address to the annual meeting of the Alberta and Northwest Chamber of Mines held in the Edmonton Club Thursday evening.

Mr. Jewitt was the guest speaker at the meeting, which followed a banquet attended by about 100, including prominent government and business leaders and several members of the press.

BIG PROBLEMS
Early history of prospecting, with its attendant trials and tribulations were described in the address of Mr. Jewitt. One of the big problems of the mining industry in the north was the lack of capital.

N.Y. JOURNALS ARE CRITICAL OF LINDBERGH

Views "Profoundly Wrong"
—Ignores Basic Fact,
States

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—(CP)—New York's leading morning newspapers discredited editorially today the views expressed yesterday by Col. Charles A. Lindbergh in testifying before the National Committee on Investigation of the aid to Britain bill.

The Times and the two Washington dailies, underlining the Times' editorial, that the best thing that could happen for the United States would be to have neither side win the war, and that even a tactical victory would not benefit the security of United States, are "profoundly wrong, and that in both of them it is not only a great danger but the bankruptcy of American idealism."

The Herald Tribune said Lindbergh ignored the basic fact in the situation, that "the United States must strike where it will," and added that "the United States must win by simply refusing to believe the case when it is made."

EXTENSION OF TRAINING TO BE DISCUSSED

Ottawa Government To Consider Longer Periods
At Military Camps

By EDWIN JOHNSON
OTTAWA, Jan. 24.—(CP)—Pre-posed revision of the compulsory military training scheme under the National Resources Act (Militia Act) will be among the major questions before Minister Riddell when he returns to Ottawa today from the British Isles.

Long before the minister departed on his overseas mission there were reports that the government was giving consideration to extending the present 30-day training period by three or four months. Rumors of such a change have been circulating since the head-quarters last night said, however, that any announcement of change must await Mr. Riddell's report to the war committee of the cabinet, scheduled to meet late today.

Meanwhile, about an extension of the training period, the department of the national war services department which will call the men for the defence department, is expected to issue the next compulsory call—Canada's fourth of this war—of any length of time.

Although it is generally believed recommendations favoring lengthening of the training period will be adopted, military authorities have indicated that possible extension will depend on a number of factors.

These they listed as follows:

1.—Supply of essential equipment
for training.

2.—Degree of training required
for the defence department.

3.—Needs of industry.

4.—Disposition of divisions now
in training in Canada.
